

Kousa Dogwood

Renowned for its delicate beauty and remarkable resilience, the Kousa Dogwood is an exceptional choice for home landscapes and urban settings alike. This ornamental tree provides year-round visual interest. In spring, it dazzles with a profusion of star-like white blooms. During summer, its graceful, layered canopy offers both shade and charm. Autumn brings a brilliant display of red foliage, while winter reveals its unique, mottled bark — reminiscent of a jigsaw puzzle — adding texture and character to the season's landscape.
